

Third-party materials

The ISC license applies only to original source code and documentation in this repository.

TVP names, channel names, trademarks, logos, programme information, stream manifests, signed URLs and media content remain the property of Telewizja Polska S.A. or their respective owners. Their presence or mention does not grant any additional rights, imply endorsement or make them part of the repository license.

TVPI does not redistribute television programmes. It resolves or relays technical playlist information exposed by external services, whose availability and permitted use remain governed by those services and applicable law.
